Top tips and Tactics

for great get-togethers

Small, bite-sized portions make for easy eating

Be prepared. Menu planning is the most stressful part of a party. Easy-to-prepare, time-saving meals work best.

Team work. Get younger family members to pass round drinks and appetisers.

Chill out. Make sure you have plenty of ice to fill a tub, then put in the garden to keep drinks chilled.

Winning ideas. Make your own bunting. Cut triangles from fabric, use pinking shears to stop fraying, and attach to lengths of ribbon with glue or a staple before stringing up.

Crowd pleasers. Create an outdoor bar and barbecue area. The grown ups will love hanging out there.

Set the mood. Put on some Brazilian-inspired music and get ready to party!

Spiced mango salsa recipe

10 mins to prepare. 2 mins to cook. Serves: 4

- 1/2tsp coriander seeds
- 1/4tsp cumin seeds
- 2tsp olive oil
- 1 large ripe mango, peeled and cut into cubes
- 3 salad onions, trimmed and finely chopped
- 1tbsp lime juice
- 2tbsp chopped fresh coriander, plus extra to serve

Heat a small, dry frying pan and add the coriander and cumin seeds. Toast for a few minutes, shaking the pan often, until they start to smell fragrant. Remove from the heat, then grind the seeds into a powder using a pestle and mortar. Add the oil and pinch of salt. Tip the mango cubes into a serving bowl with the spring onions, then pour the lime juice over along with the spiced oil, then gently stir together with chopped coriander. Add a little more lime juice to taste if you like, then serve with scattered chopped coriander. Goes well with mini poppadums as an appetiser, or served with chicken.

What a selection of delicious treats

So very British

Succulent strawberries are a summer must.

Our British strawberries are at their best between May and September.
For a twist on the classic pairing of strawberries and cream, try some of these suggestions:

- 🍷 Mix strawberries with fresh basil and a twist of black pepper
- 🍷 Splash on some balsamic vinegar
- 🍷 Sprinkle with cinnamon
- 🍷 Add a dollop of low fat Greek yogurt, honey and chopped nuts
- 🍷 Dip strawberries in melted chocolate with toasted pistachio nuts
- 🍷 Add a handful to the top of a vanilla cheesecake

Keep your strawberries chilled, but bring to room temperature before serving to bring out the best flavour.

Easy summer dessert

Knock up an Eton mess. 15mins to prepare. Serves 4.

- 400g (13oz) strawberries, hulled
- 300ml double cream
- 4 meringue nests

Chop 100g strawberries and press through a fine sieve, using the back of a wooden spoon, to make a smooth purée. Set aside.

Quarter or roughly chop the rest of the strawberries. Whip cream in a large bowl to soft peaks. Break meringue nests into small pieces then gently and lightly fold into cream with the chopped strawberries.

Divide between 4 small bowls and serve each one drizzled with the strawberry purée. Cooking tip: Give your Eton mess an aromatic twist by adding a dash of elderflower cordial and lemon juice when whipping the cream.
